For use by an agent when a transfer disclosure statement is required or when a seller is exempt from completing a TDS (C.A.R. Form AVID, Revised 11/13)

This inspection disclosure concerns the residential property situated in the City of Reverside	(	101100a 11/10)
Intersection Performed By (Real Estate Broker Firm Name) Trusted Realty Advisors Trusted Realty Advisors California law requires, with limited exceptions, that a real estate broker or salesperson (collectively, "Agent") conduct a reasonably competent and diligent visual inspection of reasonably and normally accessible areas of certain properties offered for sale and then disclose to the prospective pruchaser material facts affecting the value or destrability of that property that the inspection reveals. The duty applies repartless of whom that Agent represents. The duty applies to residential real proporties containing one-to-four dwelling units, and manufactured homes (mobilehomes). The duty applies to a stand-alone detected dwelling (whether or not located in a subdivision or a planned development) or to an attached dwelling such as a condominum. The duty also applies to a lease with an option to purchase, a ground lease or a real property sales contract of one of those properties. California law does not require the Agent to inspect the following: • Areas that are not reasonably and normally accessible • Areas off site of the property • Public records or permits • Common areas of planned developments, condominiums, stock cooperatives and the like. Agent Inspection Limitations: Because the Agents duty is limited to conducting a reasonably competent and diligent visual inspection of reasonably and normally accessible areas of only the Property being offered for sale, there are several things that the Agent will not climb onta a roof or into an attic. Reof and Attic: Agent will not climb onto a roof or into an attic. Interior: Agent will not move or look under or behind furniture, pictures, wall hangings or floor coverings. Agent will not look up chimneys or into cabinets, or open locked doors. Extentor, Agent will not move or look under or behind furniture, pictures, wall hangings or floor coverings.
